This Court views it to be inappropriate to stay the Keyner deposition pending resolution of amotion to be set for hearing after the current discovery cut-off and accordingly denied the Ex Parte Application on that basis. Having said that, however, the Court sees no prejudice to Plaintiff if such deposition were moved to a date after Defendant's counsel's prepaid vacation and accordingly directs Plaintiff's counsel forthwith to confer with Defendant's counsel/others as appropriate to reset the Keyner deposition to a date which does not interfere with Defendant's counsels prepaid vacation but which also comports with the discovery cut-off.
